Rhode Island Senior Medicare Patrol (SMP) Presents:
Medicare Fraud and You: How to Spot it, Prevent It and Report It

Medicare fraud costs all of us – and it could happen to you or someone you know! Learning about the common scams targeting seniors is a great step in protecting yourself and your family.

In this informative presentation, experts from Rhode Island’s Senior Medicare Patrol (SMP) will help you recognize Medicare fraud and what you can do to stop it. Armed with an increased awareness and understanding of healthcare programs, you can protect yourself from the economic and health-related consequences of Medicare fraud, error and abuse.
