The 2023 Public Service Award and Vision Awards Presentation

East Bay Community Action Program is pleased to present the 2023 Public Service Award and Vision Awards for outstanding contributions which have helped the agency achieve its mission of providing high quality, comprehensive, and accessible health and human services to assist people to achieve their fullest potential.

2023 Public Service Award Honoree

David Bachrach

Community Development Director, City of East Providence, RI

David Bachrach is being recognized for his on-going commitment to supporting EBCAP's community outreach programs, services, and activities. David has worked closely with EBCAP staff from various departments to help connect community members to essential support services. He is a staunch advocate for East Providence's low- and moderate-income residents and is actively involved in community-based steering and planning committees, workgroups, weekend outreach events, and other city-wide public service activities.

2023 Vision Award Honorees

Brenda & Cameron Booth

Brenda and Cameron Booth of Rumford, RI are being recognized for their four years of dedicated service as volunteers with EBCAP's Office of Volunteer Services. Together they have served more than 800 volunteer hours, assisting hundreds of EBCAP clients. Brenda and Cameron were instrumental in setting up and organizing EBCAP's Career Closet in East Providence, and they continually go above and beyond to enhance EBCAP's community outreach efforts.

Gates of Hope

Gates of Hope, a faith-based non-profit in Fall River, MA, is being honored for its partnership with EBCAP's East Bay Recovery Center to provide food and other resources to community members. Lead by its CEO, Faith Bon Jovi, Gates of Hope has made a profound impact in the community by providing food, clothing, and spiritual guidance to East Bay residents.

2023 Vision Award Honorees

Baby Steps Advisory Group

Linda Finn, Amintha Cinotti, Lissa Fernandez, and Louisa Boatwright

Members of the Baby Steps Advisory Group are being honored for their long-standing commitment to EBCAP's Baby Steps Program and the early education and social development of young children. Louisa Boatwright, Amintha Cinotti, Lissa Fernandez, and Linda Finn helped establish the program in 2009 and remain active in its fundraising efforts, its development of family-focused educational programming, and its engagement with community partners and advocates.

Tonya Glantz, MSW, PhD

Dr. Tonya Glantz, Interim Executive Director of the Institute for Education in Healthcare at Rhode Island College, is being recognized for her support of EBCAP's Transgender Whole Healthcare Program (TWH). Dr. Glantz assisted TWH as it began its work to advocate and support Rhode Island's LGBTQ+ community. Her connections and allyship helped the program network with other like-minded organizations and enhanced TWH's community presence and outreach.
